

Paper Presentation and Poster Abstracts for ICIM-2020
Ayurveda and Yoga Therapy for Cancer

Research in Ayurveda and Yoga Therapy is growing around the globe. ICIM-2020 is a perfect opportunity for new as well as established researchers to share their work.

The Scientific Program Committee invites you to submit your research in the form of a one-page abstract (250 words including spacings) for Oral and Poster Presentation at the ICIM-2020. We welcome scholarly research-based submissions related to any tradition or aspect of Ayurveda and Yoga.

Theme:

“Explaining Challenges and Exploring Integrated Remedies for Cancer in this Decade – A holistic approach”

Date of Conference: Saturday, 5th September 2020

Proposals may be submitted starting Friday, 24th April 2020

Important Dates:

Abstract submission deadline: 30th June 2020

Acceptance notification: 5th August 2020

Registration deadline: 25th August 2020

While general literature reviews are not acceptable, we welcome meta-analyses or rigorous systematic reviews of original yoga research literature. Case study abstracts are also welcome. Authors with a background in Ayurveda, Yoga, Integrative Healthcare, and/or Scientific Research are all encouraged to submit.

Abstracts must include unpublished research data analyses. Abstracts based on analyses that have been formally published by the abstract date will not be accepted. Abstracts based on secondary and additional analyses on existing data are acceptable even if the data have been published. However, abstracts that describe study design and methods for well-developed and/or funded studies may be considered for poster presentation depending on abstract quality.

All abstracts will be anonymously peer reviewed, scored and chosen on merit for poster presentation during ICIM-2020. Top accepted abstracts will be published in a supplement in the Journal of Integrative Medicine Case Reports, which will be available to all participants.

Individuals whose abstracts are selected will be required to register for the meeting. Abstracts from authors who do not register will not be accepted.

Posters dimension: 4” height x 6” width

Posters set up: from 11.00am to 7.00pm on Saturday, 5th September 2020

Posters will be removed by 7.00pm on Saturday, 5th September 2020
